

Elsasser Enterprises, LLC. is seeking a temporary part-time baking mastermind to take part in the release of the new Let's Make Whoopie & The Miss Cupcake food truck!

Typical Responsibilities (Not limited to these tasks)

- In Bakery
  - Shopping for supplies
  - Weighing ingredients for batters and frostings
  - Baking to exact specifications
  - Piping frosting
  - Packaging whoopie pies, cupcakes, and baked goods
  - Cleaning and maintenance based upon local health dept. standards
- Food Truck
  - Transporting product
  - Order fulfillment

Qualifications

- Valid driver's license
- High school education preferred or equivalent combination of education and experience.
  - Culinary education is a BIG bonus!
- Must be able to occasionally lift between 30-50 pounds.
- Detail oriented, a dedication to excellence, and the ability to learn from constructive criticism
- A passion for baking and the ability to work independently without direct supervision.
- Must be willing to sign a privacy agreement related to recipes and methods.
- Must be available preferably evenings, during the week of Bloomsburg Fair (Sep. 20th-Sept. 28th)
  - Training sessions will take place 1-2 evenings before the fair.

If interested, please email your resume and brief cover letter to themisscupcake@hotmail.com by Friday, September 13, detailing why YOU would be perfect for this opportunity. This position may require a "test" of skills, such as baking product, piping frosting, and packaging desserts. You MUST be available for training before committing to the position.

This is a paid opportunity.